LOODLESS REVOLUTION PUTS END TO GERMAN GOVERNMENT

Monarchists Reported to Have Occupied Capital Completely and Pres. Ebert Flees

KAPP NEW CHANCELLOR

Berlin Dispatches Say New Government Will Establish a Military Dictatorship

PROCLAMATION IS ISSUED

Constituent Assembly Dissolved and Election Will be Held When Conditions Permit

(By United Press.)

Basil, Mar. 13.—Unconfirmed dispatches from Berlin today reported that the monarchists had completely occupied the German capital after a bloodless revolution in which the German government was overthrown.

Dr. Kapp, the new chancellor, issued a decree dissolving the constituent assembly and announced a new election to be held as soon as conditions permitted.

It was said that President Ebert fled from Berlin.

Monarchists are in control of all public buildings, including the telephone offices.

Proclamations signed by Kapp and General Luetwitz stated:

"The former government has ceased to exist. The entire authority is placed in the hands of Dr. Kapp. The new chancellor is forming a government for order, liberty and justice. The Prussian Diet has been dissolved."

Berlin dispatches reported that the new government aimed to establish a military dictatorship. News from the provinces stated that the people were calm.

Dr. Kapp, who assumed the chancellorship is known as a violent reactionary and has opposed the Ebert government since its inception. As head of the powerful Fatherland party he was regarded as an advocate for restoration of the monarchy. Kapp has been reported as closely in touch with the activities of the monarchists. Field Marshal Hindenburg was last reported as accepting the offer to become a candidate.

Fall of the Ebert government may be fraught with the most far-reaching consequences. Allied leaders have made every effort to insure its security, publicly asserting that any change of government in Germany could be sure to endanger the treaty of Versailles.

Ebert depended for support largely on the troops of Gustav Noske, his minister of defense, who crushed the Spartacist and other radical outbreaks. While Noske had full control over the reichswehr and volunteer troops his hold on the regular army was weak. The disaffection of this element, headed by officers who retained, secretly at least, their allegiance to the former kaiser, probably forced Noske to give up his post without fighting.

Reports that the revolution was brewing have been current for months. Pan-Germans and monarchists recently have been gaining power.

Revelations in the Erzberger-Kauffman trial weakened the confidence of the people in the Ebert administration and gave the reactionaries an opportunity they did not miss to crystallize opinion against the government.

The reactionaries throughout Germany had seized every opportunity to hurl charges at the government. Calling around Von Hindenburg, they asserted that the accused military leaders never would be surrendered to the allies. Army and navy officers joined in oaths to prevent the surrender by force.

Conditions Due To Revolt To Be Considered

Marshal Foch Summons Supreme Council Into Special Session Following Downfall of German Government. Berlin Dispatch Says Martial Law Has Been Proclaimed.

(By United Press.)

Paris, Mar. 13.—Marshal Foch today summoned a special meeting of the Supreme Council to consider the German revolution.

Foch is head of the inter-allied military council and as such presumably asks the council of premiers to reconvene to consider the situation created by the second German revolution last night and any military measures the allies may wish to discuss.

A Berlin dispatch today stated that martial law has been proclaimed in Germany.

Intense excitement prevails among the people of Berlin. Many expressed the belief that they believed they would have to don the uniforms again but officials refused to discuss the situation.

Extra editions of the afternoon newspapers were torn from the hands of newsboys by anxious people.

German peace delegates received a message direct from Berlin at nine a. m. this morning declaring that there had been no bloodshed up to that time.

The delegates declared that they still represent the Ebert administration.

TWO HUSBANDS ARE GRANTED DIVORCES

William Floyd and Samuel Martin Each Allowed Decrees of Separation Today

DEMAREE TRIAL DATE FIXED

Judge Sparks this morning granted two divorces, to the plaintiffs in each case, and in these particular cases the husbands brought the action, which is an unusual occurrence.

William Floyd was granted a divorce from Shirla E. Floyd and Samuel Martin was granted a divorce from Rosa Martin. Martin lives on the Mrs. Benton Henley farm near Carthage, and stated that his wife had left him, because she did not like this country, and returned to Tennessee. Martin was also restrained from marrying again for two years. Floyd is a resident of Rushville.

There were originally four divorce cases set for today, but only two of them came up for trial.

Judge Sparks and the attorneys in the Demaree case have decided upon Wednesday March 24 as the time for hearing the case. With the arrest of Jesse Demaree this week, it was known that the case would be set for trial at an early date.

NEW LODGE RESERVATION

Said to be Due to Pressure From Republican "Bitter-Enders"

(By United Press.)

Washington, Mar. 13.—Senator Lodge today presented in the senate this morning another modification of the reservation an Article 10 of the league of nations, under the pressure from republican "bitter-enders."

The modification provides that the United States shall not only interfere with controversies between other nations under the provisions of article 10 but will not interfere in any controversy covered by Article 10.

ISAAC GOBLE DIES FRIDAY

Former Rushville Man Expired at Madison Hospital For Insane

Isaac Goble, 64 years old, died yesterday afternoon at the hospital in North Madison, after a several month's illness. The deceased formerly lived here and is survived by three sisters and one brother. Two of the sisters, Miss Eva Goble and Mrs. Sarah Siders, reside at 1026 North Harrison street, and Mrs. Anna Simonson and George Goble, live in Franklin county. The body arrived here today at noon and was taken to the home of his two sisters, 1026 North Harrison street, where funeral services will be conducted Monday morning, with burial near Andersonville.

DANGER POINT IN EPIDEMIC PASSED

No New Cases of Influenza Reported For Several Days—More Scarlet Fever Patients

GOOD REPORT ON CITY WATER.

There has been no new cases of influenza reported to Dr. J. B. Kinsinger, city health officer, in the last few days, and physicians are of the opinion that epidemic has passed the dangerous point. Warmer and changeable weather, however, may tend to bring back the epidemic, unless people take the proper care of themselves.

While influenza is declining, a scarlet fever epidemic, which has been prevalent here all winter, does not seem to be abating. There are many cases in Rushville and four additional cases were reported today. No deaths have resulted from scarlet fever this year even though the number of cases has been unusually large.

Dr. Kinsinger received this morning a report from the state department telling him of the result of the chemical analysis of the city water. The report stated that the water was most satisfactory and was free of bacteria. A very small percent, .002, was given as iron. The test was made so that no suspicion could be directed against the city water in case of typhoid fever or other maladies should develop.

INTERURBAN HITS AUTO AT CROSSING

Occupants of Machine Escape Injury Due to Fact That Traction Car Was Running Slowly

ACCIDENT THIS MORNING.

Another "near accident" happened this morning about seven o'clock, when an automobile, driven by Ed Floyd, was struck by an east-bound traction car at the Arthur street crossing, and because neither the machine nor car was travelling fast, the occupants were not injured and only slight damage resulted to the machine.

The automobile, which is owned by Reynolds Manufacturing company and is used for transporting sawyers from the mill to the country, was going south in Arthur street, and the traction car was the one that arrives here at seven o'clock from Indianapolis.

The radiator and front part of the machine were damaged and the front axle badly bent, but the occupants escaped. The traction car was not going fast which probably prevented any serious accident. Besides Mr. Floyd, another man was in the machine.

SENDS LIST OF WAR GUILTY

(By United Press.)

Paris, Mar. 13.—The allied list of war guilty has been sent to Berlin government, it was announced today. Forty-six names were on the list. A death sentence is demanded for each of the accused. The list includes the names of two former leaders of the young Turkish party.

MILROY FIVE PUTS UP A GAME FIGHT

Although Eliminated in State Tournament, Local Champions Make Presence Felt

EVEN DRAW MOST OF THE WAY

Lead See-Saws Back and Forth Until Last Four Minutes When Hartford City Pulls Ahead

(By United Press.)

Bloomington, Ind., Mar. 13.—Jefferson high school of Lafayette held its place in the first game of the morning in the state high school basketball tourney, defeating Technical high school of Indianapolis by the score of 18 to 9. Jefferson earned the right to meet Hartford City this afternoon at two o'clock in the semi-final games and won 21 to 16. Franklin seemed to have the edge over Anderson in the three o'clock game, which made it look like Lafayette and Franklin would fight it out in the final tonight.

In the second game of the morning Anderson defeated Greencastle 24 to 21. This game was characterized as the best contest of the tourney. The game was hard played and each team gave all their energy.

Franklin was the victor in the third game, the losers being Bedford. The score was 28 to 12. Franklin jumped into a comfortable lead during the first five minutes of the game which they retained throughout the contest.

The Milroy high school was eliminated in the game last night with Hartford City, by the score of 34 to 24. The game was exciting all the way through, and was an even draw until the last four minutes of play, when Hartford City had a streak of luck and gained a ten point lead.

The game was a see-saw affair, similar to the Milroy-Rushville game here last Saturday night. Milroy got a lead at the beginning, and when the score was 6 to 4 in their favor, the Hartford City team called time, and talked over the proposition.

The rest of the half was close, and when the first half ended the score was tied at 14 points.

Milroy played a wonderful offensive game, and the Hartford City team could not figure it out until almost the end of the game, when they broke through, and won the game by the small margin, and in four minutes of play.

The second half started off, like the first half, and the score was tied several times, the last place being at 22 points.

It was here in the game that only four minutes was left to play, and MacGeath, center for Hartford City, solved the offense, and worked the ball through in rapid succession for several points, and Milroy was able to make only one more basket.

The game was as exciting as any seen in the tournament, and Milroy almost worked their way to the semi-finals. In the last half Osterling, center for Milroy, was injured when he was struck in the mouth and medical attention had to be given, but he continued in the game.

It was a hard game to lose, as it was almost a draw, and luck favored the Hartford City team in the last few minutes. The entire Milroy team played their fast and usual good game, with Osterling making five baskets. Innis, the star of the morning game on making points, was guarded closely last night, and made only two baskets.

The score and summary:
Hartford City (34) Milroy (24)
Towns F Innis
Hoekammer F Stewart
MacGeath C Osterling
Dunbar G Richey
Mannix G Harcourt
Substitutions—Sinclair for Hoekammer.

Field goals—Towns 5, MacGeath 9, Stewart 3, Dunbar, Innis 2, Osterling 5, Richey.

Foul goals—Hoekammer 3, Innis Towns, Stewart.

Referee—Smith. Umpire Veeker.

AUDITOR TO ABIDE BY RULING ON LAW

Will Issue Exemption Blank to Allow War Veterans Deduction on 1920 Assessments

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULING

Law Giving Them Exemption of 1,000 Not in Effect in Time Last Year to be Operative

Will M. McMillin, county auditor, has received from the attorney general, Ele Stansbury, a ruling to the effect that soldiers and sailors of the Mexican and civil wars, or their widows, are entitled to the regular mortgage exemption as well as the $1,000 exemption from the assessed valuation of their property as provided for by an act of the 1919 legislature.

Mr. McMillin will abide by this ruling, not only because he feels that it is his duty to do so since the opinion comes from the state official authorized by law to interpret laws, but also because he feels that war veterans or their widows are entitled to both exemptions.

If war veterans or their widows were not allowed to take the regular exemption given to every other taxpayer," said Mr. McMillin, "they would not have any advantage whatever because of the $1,000 exemption and the purpose of the law would be nullified."

Some county auditors have taken the position that the veterans should not have the regular exemption when they receive the special exemption. The Henry county auditor, for example, disagrees with the retroactive feature, and is sustained by the attorney general who holds veterans or their widows may not get the deduction on last year's assessment, on which they pay taxes this year, because the law was not effective on May 1, 1919, at which time the period for filing exemption blanks passed.

The attorney general submitted his opinion to the state board of tax commissioners.

es, then get a certificate of error showing them entitled to the $1,000 exemption and obtain a refund from the county treasurer.

The law provides that veterans are not entitled to the exemption in the event their assessments exceed $5,000. They must be at least 70 years of age and soldiers widows must be at least 60 years of age.

SHOWS IMPORTANCE TIGHTENING STAKES

Dr. G. S. Henninger Emphasizes Biblical Truth With Illustration at M. E. Revival

NO SERVICES FOR TONIGHT.

Another large audience heard a stirring sermon delivered by the Rev. G. S. Henninger at St. Paul's Methodist church last night. The minister took for his text, "Enlarge thy tents and strengthen thy stakes." He said that when you lengthen the cords of a tent you must strengthen the stakes to prevent the stormy winds from carrying it all away. He emphasized especially the importance of strengthening the four stakes of Prayer, Bible Study, Communion, and Saints, and the work of the Holy Spirit. The service closed with a conservation service about the altar of prayer in which the greater part of the congregation participated.

There will be no service at the church this evening. On Sunday evening at 7 o'clock Doctor Henninger will preach on the theme, "Demology" and will discuss the question of human being being devil-possessed today as they were in the time of Christ. The sermon in the morning at 10:30 will be preached by pastor and the large chorus choir will lead in the singing throughout the day.

LOCAL NEEDS ARE CAUSE OF INCREASE

Distribution of 1920 Taxes in Three More Townships Presented Today to Show This

GOVERNMENT COST HIGHER

More Than Half of Increase in Center and Rushville Outside City Goes to Township

More than half the increase in taxes paid in Rushville township outside the city of Rushville during the year 1920 are to meet the expenses of the township government. The same holds true of Center township. Not half of the increase in Union township is for the local expenses of the township, but the largest increase for any purpose is for the township.

The distribution of the 1920 taxes in these three townships is offered today by the county treasurer as further evidence that, not the new tax law but the increased cost of local government is responsible for the taxes being higher this year.

The distribution in six other townships has previously been published and all revealed that the needs of local governments caused the big increase in the amount of taxes Rush county people will pay this year. It has furthermore been shown that four-fifths of the taxes go for roads and schools and the cost of maintaining both has increased many fold during the last year.

The distribution of the taxes collected in Center, Union and Rushville township outside the city, are given herewith:

COMMISSIONERS MEET

The county commissioners were in session this afternoon attending to some minor business pertaining to roads. Viewers were to be appointed for two roads, petitions for which have been acted upon favorably.

When you clip the semi-annual coupon from your third Liberty Loan bond on March 15, it will be the last you will clip from these bonds, for the reason that there will be no others to clip. However, this will be the last interest you will receive on these bonds, but before you receive other interest the bonds of this issue must be sent to the treasury department at Washington and exchanged for others, on which will be coupons that will run to the maturity of the bonds, which will be in 1929.

NOT REGISTERED TO VOTE

Washington, Mar. 13.—A boom to nominate Senator Walter Edge, New Jersey, for president was started in the Virgin Islands recently when he was there with other senators investigating conditions.

It was at a dinner given to leading citizens of the islands. Edge was introduced as having followed Woodrow Wilson into the governor's chair of New Jersey and "likely to follow him into the White House."

This announcement was greeted with enthusiastic cries of "Hear! Hear!" as Edge bowed his acknowledgments. Leading citizens favored organizing an Edge-for-President club on the spot.

Democrats in the party said there was only one thing lacking—nobody votes in the Virgin Islands.

LAST COUPON DUE MAR. 15

Third Loan Bonds Should Then be Exchanged For New Ones

When you clip the semi-annual coupon from your third Liberty Loan bond on March 15, it will be the last you will clip from these bonds, for the reason that there will be no others to clip. However, this will be the last interest you will receive on these bonds, but before you receive other interest the bonds of this issue must be sent to the treasury department at Washington and exchanged for others, on which will be coupons that will run to the maturity of the bonds, which will be in 1929.

All Liberty bonds of the third issue must be thus exchanged and holders of them do well to leave them with their bankers who will forward them to the treasury department for exchange. This cannot be done, however, before March 15, but can be done on that date or at any time thereafter.

INCOME TAX RETURNS DUE

Business Men, Farmers and Wage Workers Must File Schedules of Income for 1919.

MARCH 15 LAST FILING DATE.

Net Income of $1,000 or Over, if Single; or $2,000 or Over if Married, Must Be Reported.

The Income Tax imposed by Act of Congress on earnings of the year 1919 is now being collected.

Returns under oath must be made on or before March 15 by every citizen and resident who had a net income for 1919 amounting to:

$1,000 or over, if single, or if married and living apart from wife (or husband); or if widowed or divorced.

$2,000 or over, if married and living with wife (or husband).

The status of the person on the last day of the year fixes the status for the year with respect to the above requirements.

Under any of these circumstances a return must be made, even though no tax is due.

Husband and wife must consider the income of both, plus that of dependent minor children, in meeting this requirement; and, if sufficient to require a return, all items must be shown in a joint return or in separate returns of husband and wife.

A single person with minor dependents must include the income of such dependents.

A minor who has a net income of $1,000 or more is not considered a dependent, and must file a separate return.

Personal returns should be made on Form 1040A, unless the net income exceeded $5,000, in which case Form 1040 should be used.

Residents of Indiana should file their returns with, and make payments of Income Tax to, William L. Elder, Collector of Internal Revenue, Indianapolis.

How to Figure Income.

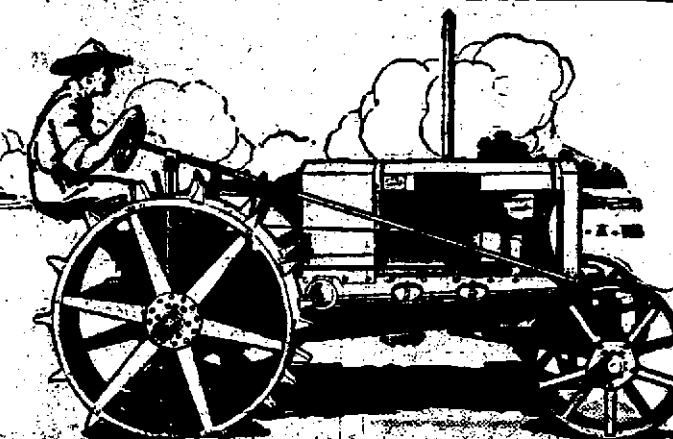

The best way to find out whether one must file a return is to get a Form 1040A and follow the instructions printed on it. That form will serve as a reminder of every item of income, and if a return is due it tells how to prepare and file it.

If in doubt on any point as to income or deductions, a person may secure free advice and aid from the nearest Internal Revenue office.

Overwork, estimates and other minor methods are barred when a person is making out his Income Tax return. Accurate and complete returns must be made up. The return is a sworn statement. As such it must be truthful and accurate.

Married persons and wage earners must ascertain the actual compensation received. Overtime, bonuses, shares in the profits of a business, value of gifts and the board furnished by the employer and other items which are compensations for services must be included.

It must be borne in mind that compensation may be paid in other forms than in cash. Amounts paid in Liberty Bonds is taxable at the market value of the bonds. A note received in payment for services is taxable at the face value, and the interest upon it is also taxable.

WALLIS

America's Foremost Tractor

To the Wallis owner there is no question that the tractor is a time-saver and a profit-maker. Naturally, his opinion is based upon what his Wallis has done for him; so in his mind there is no doubt.

The Wallis has long championed the principle that the tractor, to serve day after day under the relentless strain of heavy farm work, must be built as fine as the best motor car or truck.

Thus you find in it such refinements as the "U" frame; the sweet-running valve-in-head motor with removable cylinder sleeves and machine-finished combustion chambers; the sub-and-hardened steel gears, completely protected by dust-proof housings and running in a constant bath of clean oil; the oversize bearings, and others.

These things do not cause much concern to the Wallis owner. He congratulates himself on the fact that his Wallis is a dependable servant; that its power is ready day after day; his work done in season; his labor bill reduced and his profits increased.

The trend today is more decidedly than ever toward the Wallis, "America's Foremost Tractor." If you cherish the hope of owning one it will be decidedly to your advantage to act promptly.

MEXICO HAS BIG SUPPLY OF OIL

Tampico Region is Estimated to Have Enough Oil to Supply Needs For Whole World

IN INFANT STAGE NOW.

Statistics Reveal Enormous Amount Which Could be Brought Out by Scientific Production

By RALPH H. TURNER (U. P. Staff Correspondent.) Tampico, Feb. 9 (By Mail)—Oil men believe today that 1920 may witness the greatest activity in the Mexican petroleum industry. They agree also that the oil development of Mexico is still in its infancy. Before peering into the future, however, it is well to get a picture of the present. For only by comprehending the immensity of the Mexican oil "game" today can a person give credence to the staggering possibilities of the future.

It must be explained, before citing production figures, that in Mexico a distinction always is drawn between "actual" and "potential" production. The potential production of wells in the Tampico field is so great that only a comparatively small part of the oil is pumped from the wells. There are two principal reasons for this. First, transportation and terminal facilities are insufficient to handle the full output; the wells of their full capacity, for that hastens the encroachment of salt water, a factor which already has brought brief to many of Tampico's biggest producers.

On the first of this year the daily potential production of the Tampico territory was estimated at 1,770,000 barrels. This figure included the output of the two principal fields of the northern district, Panuco and Topila, and of the "south country," where production is heaviest, the wells in that field averaging a daily potential production of 28,000 barrels. Of the total estimate, however, not more than 35 percent of the oil is actually being produced.

A better idea of actual production may be gained from export figures.

EX-SOLDIERS RECEIVE IDENTIFICATION CARDS

Those Holding Insurance are Requested to Keep These Cards and not Return Them to Washington

MANY OF THEM RETURNED.

Former service men, holders of Uncle Sam's War Risk Insurance, have received from the Bureau of War Risk Insurance an identification card bearing their name and insurance number, for ready reference, such as they carried while in the service, states Director R. G. Chalmers-Jones of the Bureau. This card will enable the men to give their correct insurance number when communicating with the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, and also serves for identification in case of sickness or accident. Many of these cards are being returned to the Bureau by former service men instead of being retained. The Director requests all former service men who received these identification cards to keep them.

LIBRARIANS JOIN FIGHT ON UNREST

American Library Association inaugurates Nation-wide "Books for Everybody!" Movement.

WILL AID FOREIGN BORN.

Social Problems Can Be Solved by Teaching American Ideals and Traditions.

The spirit of unrest that has been sweeping the country indicates that the foreign born, who have flocked to the United States from every corner of the globe have not been given the proper help and encouragement, in the opinion of the 4,000 librarians who make up the American Library Association and who are now enlisted in a "Books for Everybody" movement. The effort is a concerted movement to carry out the Enlarged Program which the association has adopted.

There are approximately fifteen millions of foreign born in the United States and of this number six millions do not read or speak the English language. One phase of the Enlarged Program will be to bring the publisher and translator together with the view of furnishing the proper books in sufficient numbers to carry the message of American ideals and traditions to this vast army of uninformed people. They have been largely dependent upon the foreign press for their written messages. Many men who live with their fingers on the pulse of current events are firmly convinced that a sound foundation in Americanism can be easily built among the foreign born if the proper literature is placed within their reach in a language they can understand.

No Drive to Be Held.

In order to carry out the Enlarged Program, two million dollars will be required. This money will not be sought through the medium of a campaign or an intensive drive, but will be obtained through the individual efforts of the librarians, library trustees and friends of libraries. The American Library Association will bend every effort to bring about the nationwide adoption of each of the cardinal points in the Program, which includes the extension of the county library system and the establishment of more industrial and business libraries. It now has in operation book service to the United States Merchant Marine, Coast Guard, Lighthouse Service and hospitals of the United States Public Health Service. The needs of the 75,000 blind persons in the United States will be cared for. At present the number of books available is woefully inadequate. This will be remedied and the joys of good literature will be brought into lives that are darkened by a veil which will never be raised by any other method.

Not all the work of Americanization lies in the great centers of population. Great sections of the country where industry is carried on by foreign workers do not know public library service. There are important mining states where less than a score of libraries exist. One mining state has but two public libraries.

Waterproof Glue.

Casein glues are exceedingly resistant to the action of water and retain a very high percentage of their original strength, even after long immersion under water. They are comparatively inexpensive, and the materials from which they are made are readily available in the market. They are applied cold and will set without the application of heat.

Teacher Shortage Problem

The teacher shortage situation, while in some parts of the country slightly better than last October, when the National Education Association made its inquiry, is still a very grave problem, according to reports received by the bureau of education, department of the interior at Washington.

On February 13 the commissioner of education found, on the basis of returns from state school officers, that there are 18,279 schools closed because of lack of teachers, and 41,900 schools taught by teachers characterized as "below standard but taken on temporarily in emergency." The largest shortages are as follows: Kentucky, 2,250; Texas, 2,055; Virginia, 2,000; Georgia, 1,500; North Carolina, 700; Iowa, 600.

Substandard teachers are reported as follows: Texas, 4,000; Virginia, 3,500; Alabama, 3,500; Georgia, 3,000; Tennessee, 3,000; Minnesota, 1,800; Illinois, 1,300; Kentucky, 1,100; New York, 1,100; South Carolina, 1,000.

In response to the question, "What provision is made for children in territories where schools are closed?" eighteen states report that children are transferred to other schools, three states report no provision, one state reports requires "some," two states report that the majority of children are losing the grade.

In response to the question, "Are people moving to centers of population?" six states report that no data are at hand; five states report "very little," three states report a considerable movement, and four states report "none."

In response to the question, "To what extent are taxpayers interesting themselves in paying better salaries for teachers?" 14 states report that the interest is general. One state reports "great interest," and one state reports very large interest, while another reports that they are "doing their best."

One significant fact in connection with the shortage of teachers is that 190 state, county, city, and private moral schools report 11,503 fewer students November 1, 1919, than they had the year previous to the war. These schools represent 60 per cent of the total normal schools, and on this basis, there would be a shortage of 19,170, and at graduation time, 1920, there will be 7,000 fewer graduates from the normal schools. Teacher training departments in colleges show approximately the same falling off in those preparing to teach, although other departments show a great increase in enrollment.

The Evolution of Woman

Some day the women of this country will enjoy equal suffrage with men. They will have votes in every contest in which men have a vote. They will be the equal of men in every respect, as they are now the superior of men in many. Only a few years ago woman was considered a frail thing to be coddled and protected from all contact with the stern side of life. Today she is a fixture in business; her voice is heard in every mart of trade, and her influence is felt in every movement of importance that concerns the public weal. The evolution of woman in the past few years has been more rapid and more far reaching than any other phase of human life. She is coming into her own.

Birds Which Pay Way in the County

The state department of conservation has prepared a series of six articles on insectivorous birds which combat voracious insect pests that annually collect a tax of many thousands of dollars by destroying fruit and cereal crops. These articles are written for the benefit of farmers so that these friends of the farmers may be protected, and allowed to carry on their valuable work.

The scarlet tanager is sometimes called the "black-winged redbird," "pocket bird" and "Canada tanager." The adult male is about six and a half inches long, and has a wing extent of about ten and a half inches. His general plumage is scarlet; the wings pointed and black. The adult female is green above and yellow below; the wings and tail are brownish black, edged with green. The scarlet tanager comes north in May and departs early in September, wintering in the southern states. The food of these birds consist principally of those kinds of insects which frequent and do injury to our forest trees. They eat chiefly caterpillars, beetles, spiders and grasshoppers. They are also known to eat ants, ichneumon flies, dragon flies and leaf chafers.

Teachers Handicapped by Parsimonious Policy

By SAMUEL L. TRABUE

I have read with interest the articles published in your columns relative to the remuneration of teachers and I am sure that the arguments so ably presented have convinced us that our treatment of the profession has been parsimonious to say the least.

We all realize that the character of our youth is largely moulded by the teacher but we seem to forget that the teacher is greatly handicapped in her efficiency when she is depressed by financial worries.

Only this week I was informed by a friend, who is the principal in a nearby city school, that he has under consideration a business proposition which will pay three times as much as he is now making, to say nothing of the opportunity for advancement in the new field. He says that he cannot afford to reject this offer even at the expense of giving up his chosen profession. His case is not an isolated one.

We must awake and face the issue as it confronts us today. We must pay salaries large enough to hold our teachers and encourage the best minds to enlist in the profession or we will presently see our magnificent educational machine headed for the scrap heap.

I am an optimist and I have no doubt that our better judgment will prompt us to remedy conditions without unnecessary delay.

Must Raise Salaries of Teachers Or Suffer School System To Decay

By DOUGLAS MORRIS

We must raise teachers' salaries or suffer our common school system to decay. The latter alternative is unthinkable. A democratic form of government can rest only on the solid foundation of an educated people. The fathers of the republic fully recognized this fact. Jefferson was proud of his founding of the Virginia University than of having been president for eight years. Our Indiana grandfathers in writing our admirable Constitution of 1851 led the American commonwealths in creating a real common school system. However, during the last generation we have starved males out of the teaching profession. The result was a probable lowering of school efficiency, but now, better than later, we must meet the question on its merits. We have no right to demand that teachers shall work for half the reward they might earn in private avocations requiring no greater talent or preparation. But raising teachers salaries to a height guaranteeing efficient education involves a heavy increase in taxation. Our taxes are now unprecedently high, and there is, of course, a limit to endurance of tax burdens. Manifestly we should search for and stop expense leaks. We could do something by terminating a large and pestiferous brood of commissions (including the Public Utility one) created during the last twenty years by our legislatures. The money spent in state wide primary elections now degenerating into contests largely dominated by demagogues and millionaires—would better serve the use of increasing teachers salaries. Indiana teachers could help some by insisting on the repeal of the optional teachers pension law. It originated, I think, in 1907. This adventure in socialism now faces a bankruptcy because its underlying principles are as economically unsound as those of wild cat insurance companies. Of course the institution can be put on a sound financial foundation by increased taxation. But if teachers insist on adequate pensions after retirement, they must not expect adequate pay before retirement.

Civil pensions are not consistent with the genius of democracy. Judges and other faithful officers are as much entitled to pensions as teachers, but when all equally deserving public officials draw pensions the burden will be unendurable. Teachers, as well as other public servants, should demand and receive adequate pay—and forever discard the attitude of accepting charity in the form of pensions.

Much could be done in curbing the absurd extravagance in the erection of school buildings that has obtained in Indiana in the last decade.

But whatever else happens, our schools must not suffer. If necessary we should postpone some road improvements projected at $40,000 per mile, and other projects, which, desirable in themselves, are, in comparison with efficient schools, luxuries rather than necessities.

Respectfully,
DOUGLAS MORRIS

"Diana of The Green Van"
"Diana of The Green Van," in which Alma Rubens has the leading role, together with Harold Lloyd in "Don't Shove," is the offering at the Mystic theater today. Miss Rubens plays the part of a wealthy heiress who turns gypsy and happens upon many romantic experiences.

Playing the game—playing is the way the rich and pleasure-seeking society devotees play it—was the diversification of those in "Modern Husbands," Henry B. Walthall's latest production coming to the Mystic Monday.

Steve Duane neglected his beautiful young wife, and left her fair game to the wiles of a "he-vampire" who accompanied her to all night revels at questionable roadhouses.

Julia Duane, the wife, played with fire, and paid the penalty. Brockwell, the "love-protector," played the "house cat" while hubby was away, but he played his string too far, and was caught in his own trap.

Jonathan Cosgrove went to midnight stag-ories, leaving his charming wife to seek diversion in the company of men who found other men's wives legitimate prey. Mrs. Cosgrove went a little too far with the "love-protector," who forced his way into her bedroom and became too persistent.

And so it went in the merry roundelay of the fast social set. They played fast but too loose. They had not learned that "Those who dance must pay the piper"—but they paid just the same in the end.

"Sis Hopkins" With Mable Normand
Rather than a series of laughable incidents with the semblance of a plot somewhere between them, "Sis Hopkins," the new Goldwyn Picture in which Mabel Normand stars at the Princess Theatre, tonight tells a consistent story in which are suspense and even thrills.

Sissieretta Hopkins—called "Sis" for short—has an old, rheumatic father to whom she is devoted. They live on a run-down farm in the town of New Harmony and barely make both ends meet. As everyone knows, Sis is a gawky, hoyden, up to all kinds of mischief; but she is lovable as well.

Through an accident Vibert, the town's richest man, thinks there is oil on the Hopkins land and he sets about to so ingratiate himself with Sis and her pa that they will sell it to him for a song. He sends her to the local seminary to be "educated" and of course the girl's exploits there are amusing beyond description. Vibert's patronage arouses the ire of "Hed" Searboro, who really cares for Sis. How it all unfolds itself and how the shrewdness of Sis enables her to sell the worthless lands to Vibert and bring back money to her—all this is told in Mabel Normand's remarkable manner.

Larry Simon, well known comedian, will also be seen at the Princess today and tonight in "Devil Drop Inn."

ALL CHURCHES TO GET SHARE OF THE ESTATE

Will of Amanda F. Reeves of
Knights town is Admitted to Probate in Newcastle

MANY BEQUESTS ARE MADE.

All of the churches in Knights town, the public library board and the school board will share in the estate of Amanda F. Reeves, under the terms of her will, which was probated in Newcastle. Mrs. Reeves, who died recently in Knights town, left an estate estimated to be worth several thousand dollars. The entire estate goes to her husband, Samuel D. Reeves during his life and upon his death the churches, library and school board will get $1,000 each.

The will bequeaths $1,000 each to the Christian church, the Bethel Presbyterian church, the Methodist Episcopal church, the Friends church, the library and the school board.

Additional bequests include $300 each to her nephews, Marshal E. Rhodes and Alva N. Rhodes, $500 each to two nieces, Anna Walker and Eva Milikan, $500 to Aaron Reeves, a brother of her husband, $500 each to Munson Reeves, Josephine Ellison and Genoa F. Trowbridge. In all, the will bequest the sum of $10,000 to public enterprises and individuals. The residue of the estate, after these gifts are made, is to be shared by her legal heirs under the law of descent. The will was drawn on February 11, 1911.

CLASS ADOPTION APRIL 1

The next class adoption of the Modern Woodman will be held on the night of April first. Fourteen candidates have so far expressed themselves, and no doubt there will be others by that time.

BABY BOY IS BORN

A baby boy weighing six and three-fourths pounds was born to the wife of Ralph Gosnell, of Orange township, Tuesday. The child has been named Lowell Ralph.

RESTFUL RESULTS FOR MEN

Only a person who has experienced that awful "all night" cough that sometimes follows influenza can appreciate what a good night's sleep can be. Mrs. Annie Davidson, 2080 Myrtle St., Long Beach, Cal., writes: "The result of using Foley's Honey and Tar was a restful one for me." Foley's Honey and Tar checks harsh, racking coughs; eases wheezy breathing; stops tickling in throat; covers raw, irritated surfaces with a soothing, healing coating. F. B. Johnson.—(Adv.)

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Grant Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Hungerford, Mr. and Mrs. Watson Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weidner, and children, Thelma, Woodrow and Lowell and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Gardner and children, Eugene, Maxine and Thelma.

The D. A. R. meeting which was to have been held Thursday afternoon, has been changed to Wednesday afternoon, on account of Farmers Day being held on Thursday.

On Wednesday afternoon, the Daughters will be entertained at the home of Mrs. John Tittsworth, in North Perkins street at 2:30 o'clock. At this time Miss Sleeth will give a talk on the Franchise League. All the members are urged to be present.

Friends of Mrs. Andy Pea surprised her on her birthday with a bountiful pitch-in supper last evening. Those present were Mrs. Kaufman Wright and children, Mrs. Albert Sweet, Mrs. Herschel Gregory and daughter Lillian, Mrs. Orville Maple and son, Mrs. Leonard Pate and daughter, Mrs. Donald Carpenter and daughter, Mrs. Noel Waggoner and son, and Miss Jessie English. The evening was spent in games and with music on the vocalion.

The members of the Inter Nos club were delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Oliver Fletcher west of the city. Music and contests furnished the amusements for the afternoon and dainty refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. Alba Cassidy, Mrs. Byron Gates, Mrs. Marion Fletcher, Mrs. Conrad Posz, Mrs. Albert Updike, Mrs. Cyrus Wiley, Mrs. Lorrie Miller, Mrs. Frank Fletcher and the Misses Vashti and Dora Fletcher and Ethel Posz.

The Young People of the First United Presbyterian church held a social and business meeting last evening at the home of the pastor, the Rev. J. T. Aiken, in West Seventh street. During the business session officers for the coming year were elected as follows: president, Miss Mary Stout; vice-president, Miss Mildred Mary; recording secretary, Miss Golda Cheek; treasurer, Mrs. Byron Wainwright. After the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed, during which light refreshments were served. Forty-five young people were present for the meeting.

A dance will be given in the Sampson hall in Arlington next Tuesday night. The McGinnis orchestra will furnish the music. All are cordially invited to attend.

Frocks of Past May Be Made Up-to-Date

By MARGARET ROHE
(Written for United Press.)

Jill's lovely in velvet
In lace she's a queen
But Oh, she's a knockout
In simple satine.

New York, Mar. 13.—We've taken the oilcloth from the kitchen table to turn into a nifty chapeau so no one need be surprised when we go further in appropriating the house furnishings to our sartorial needs. Some genius has discovered that the lovely lustrous satine which we use to line our bedspreads and our cretonne window draperies is "just too sweet for words" when done into a chic but simple frock.

The satine frock then is the pet of the mode for Spring and early summer wear. Touched up with a bit of bright embroidery in colored crewels it is effective indeed and so very elegant and expensive looking without that one would never suspect it of having a lining past. It comes in so many exquisite shades of old blue, rose, lavender, Nile green, old gold and French grey that it is hard to pass them by for the more sombre charms of black and yet the black satine frock is perhaps the very smartest of all. It is more elaborately yarn embroidered than the colored satines and often shows a motif of applied fruit outlined in the yarn as a distinctive detail.

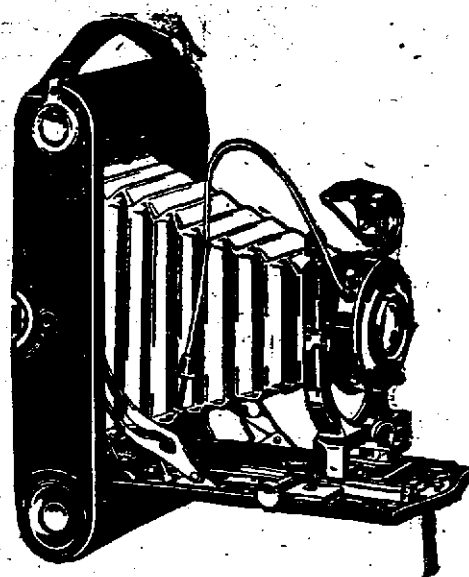

For the young of the species the little dresses of satine are adorable. From eight years up one may be correctly smart in satine. For the youngsters the little black satine cherries are gay with cerise yarn cherries and stitchings in red and green wool while some stunning old gold models are done in old blue, mauve and black with little frills and vestees of sheer white net and sashes with embroidered ends.

From the simple charms of satine it would seem to be a far cry to the iridescent glories of the peacock and yet to emulate Juno's favorite fowl is the aim of every chic chicken. Calling it by its French name of Paon that peculiar shade of greenish blue found only in the peacocks resplendent tail is the favored color of the Spring. In the use of changeable blue and green taffeta we find again the fashionable fixation on the peacock and the use of its feathers in reality and in embroidered replicas knows no end. A stunning evening gown of black is absolutely plain save for one straggling peacock feather starting at the waist line and embroidered down the front of the skirt. A gown of peacock blue satin has a train which is a mass of embroidered peacock feathers and dazzling evening turbans of gold tissue sprouting a half dozen peacock feathers at the right rear go head and hand with a huge unfurled fan of the same tail plumage.

Veiling a bright blue gown with a chiffon, Georgette or net in vivid green one in the blue is nothing if not a veiled illusion to the peacocks pride and the wearing of two lengths of meline one blue, one green is just another one of these popular peacock effects. For the modern maid is bent in borrowing plumage from Juno's bird and do it she will by fair means or foul.

Lucky Dogs.

WINCHESTER PAPERS ARE CONSOLIDATED

Journal and Herald of That City Combine Under One Head Because of High Prices

HERALD MEN WILL RETIRE

Winchester, Ind., Mar. 13.—Seward S. Watson, editor and proprietor of the Winchester Herald, and Beeson Brothers, editors and proprietors of the Winchester Journal, announced today that their papers have consolidated. The new paper will be the Winchester Journal Herald. Mr. Watson and John Oliver, long connected with the Journal, have bought the Journal plant and the Beeson brothers retire.

The Journal was first issued in 1843 as the Patriot, with Henry H. Neff, afterwards a colonel in the Mexican war, as editor and owner. The Herald was the outgrowth of the old Winchester Gazette, which was first published in 1873. In 1876 James G. Brice, former county school examiner, bought the plant and began publishing the Herald.

Among the Herald editors were Enos L. Watson, father of James E. Watson, United States senator from Indiana, and Union B. Hunt, former secretary of state. Both the Journal and Herald have supported the Republican party during their entire history.

DUNREITH CITIZEN KILLED BY A TRAIN

W. L. Cory, Age 63, Superintendent of Farmers Canning Co. Run Down by Freight

CONFUSED CROSSING TRACK

William Littleton Cory, age sixty-three years, superintendent of the Farmers Canning company of Dunreith had prominent citizen and farmer, was instantly killed yesterday afternoon when struck by a west-bound Pennsylvania freight train as he was crossing the tracks from the Farmers Canning Co. plant to the interurban station.

It is not known how the accident resulted, but it is presumed that Mr. Cory became confused after starting across the tracks. His body was terribly mangled.

Coroner Flavius J. Drake of Knightstown has been called and the body was removed to the Pennsylvania station.

Mr. Cory is survived by his wife, Virginia, to whom he was married in June, 1892. She was a daughter of John William Griffin.

An adopted son, Dr. Walter Harvey, of Philadelphia, also survives.

RECOVERS FROM OPERATION

Oliver Hudson who was operated on the first of this week at the Memorial hospital in Connorsville, for an injury he received to one of his legs last fall, was removed to his home near Glenwood, yesterday and is reported to be getting along nicely.

Taught Chinese Lacemaking.

The art of lacemaking was first taught to the Chinese of the Chefoo district by foreign missionaries about twenty-five years ago. They believed that by teaching lacemaking the women and girls would find profitable employment within their own homes, and the subsequent spread of the industry has fully justified their efforts. Although first taught in Chefoo, Chi Hsia Hsien was the first district in which lace was extensively made.

THE everlasting faithfulness of the Hupmobile makes a strong appeal to the average American family.

They admire steadfastness in a motor car only a little less than they do in a friend.

The Hupmobile stays right in a way that makes a man say: "Well, there's one investment I've made, that's paid out."
